STRIKE IS OFF.

A Conference Ends the Big Walk Out in Boston.

About 20,000 Men Returned to Work This Morning.

Boston, March 14.—Through the united efforts of the representatives of the great mercantile bodies of the city, seconded by the chief executives of the city and the state in conference with the recognized leaders of organized labor, the great strike of freight handlers and kindred trades represented in the Allied Freight Transportation council, was broken tonight. Fully 20,000 men who have been idle for four days have returned to work.

This result was attained at a conference at the office of Governor Crane. The decision was at once reported to the Allied Freight Transportation Council at a special meeting and unanimously endorsed.

The settlement was the result of an expressed determination of Governor Crane and those representing the merchants of Boston to bring all possible pressure to bear on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad company to adopt the rules forbidding freight handlers to unload teams except at their own option and risk.

All of the old men for whom places can be found will be taken back by the railroads.

Teamsters and longshoremen will find a good demand for their services and traffic of all descriptions was resumed with a rush.

The Carnival Progress is Rapid—Many Attractions Will Be Here.

Last Night There Was a Large Meeting of the Lodge, With Initiation.

ISLAND QUEEN EXCURSION SOON

The many attractions that the Boston Elks company will have in Paducah for the Elks Jubilee carnival promise to surpass anything ever seen in Kentucky.

The Boston company is one of the largest in the world, and one of the most reliable.

This is the same company that has furnished the amusement at nearly every Elks fair or merchants' carnival in America. The gentlemen in charge of the local carnival are to be congratulated upon securing such a meritorious aggregation of amusements. Their reputation for providing clean exhibitions devoid of all vulgar features is well known. It has been especially guaranteed that nothing but the very best will be furnished by them and all exhibitions will be of such a character that ladies and children without male escorts can visit with perfect impunity. This is as it should be, for the carnival period is one of merry-making for every one, and the day of the cheap, sensational show that attempts to cater to men only is past.

This company erects some of the old-time, worn-out tannery fronts, but beautifully embellished with gold carved exteriors, and every entrance to a show a perfect panel structure painted by the best scenic artists in the country, done in oil and gorgeous colors. In fact, when erected, it represents in miniature a permanent world's fair midway, and instead of entering a cheap canvas enclosure it really appears as if one was walking into a well appointed theater or place of public amusement.

The aggregate cost of this wonderful enterprise runs into six figures; chief among its grand attractions is the only original Boston-Elks trained wild animals exhibition directly imported from Europe. With a magnificent and palatial entrance that in itself cost more than the entire equipment of some of the largest circuses in the country.

A twenty-five thousand dollar Crystal Maze is another beautiful exclusive feature with this aggregation.

Electra, the flying lady, has been provided with a luxuriantly appointed establishment. There will also be a carefully prepared and artistically arranged exhibition of Sapho in poses plastique. Beautiful Turkish theater, with its congress of native Turks, Arabs, Syrians, and fascinating Egyptian female entertainers will be prominent upon the Midway. Another amusement will be exclusively devoted to the exhibition of Edison's latest and best animated pictures.

The German village, a feature at every street fair and carnival, with its quaint love and patriotic songs of the fatherland, provide a cosmopolitan attraction to be found nowhere else. Countless other small amusements that help to make the carnival famous provide a place of recreation for the overflow. All are assured of ample, clean, instructive, and satisfying amusement at a very small cost.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Elks last night, and several visitors were present. The new paraphernalia was used for the first time, and Attorney Tom Harrison had the pleasure of being the first victim, and the meeting was greatly enjoyed.

The big excursion steamer Island Queen will be here April 16th, and it is probable the Elks will give one of their delightful excursions on her. She is now on her way up from New Orleans, where she has been for several weeks.

Mr. Joe J. Conley of the Gaskill Comedy company, who had been here on business, left today for Nashville.

SHEDS ABLAZE.

FIRE DEPARTMENTS SOON HAD THEM EXTINGUISHED—LIT-TLEDAMAGE.

The fire departments were called to a small blaze in the rear of the M. Livingston store on Second street this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock.

Several small sheds filled with empty boxes were ablaze but the firemen soon had the flames under control. The damage will amount to little. The origin of the blaze is unknown, but it is supposed it caught from a fire nearby which was used in heating pitch for the roof of the new Harbor building.

CHURCH PASSES OUT

OF EXISTENCE.

Union City, Tenn., March 14.—Rev. E. E. Hendrick of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this place announces that at the Obion presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church held at Trenton last week it was decided to sell the church property at Brownsville, and Rev. Joe McLesky was appointed a committee to see to its disposal. This step was taken owing to the fact that there is no church organization of this denomination there, nearly all of its members having moved away or died. The church is one of the oldest in this part of the state, and it was in its prime some thirty years ago.

CATARRH

A Constitutional Affection.

Sprays, washes, powders, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes, however long and persistently used, do not cure Catarrh. They relieve temporarily the inflammation in the throat and nose, and enable you to breathe more easily and freely, but the continual rush of impure blood to these parts keeps up the irritation and ultimately produces ulceration of the glands, when the breath becomes exceedingly offensive and the soft bones of the nose are frequently destroyed. The catarrhal inflammation extends over the entire surface of the mucous membrane, or inner skin; the stomach, kidneys and lungs are often involved; the whole system soon becomes affected by the rapid absorption of poisonous matter into the blood, and the disease that you had hoped to cure with simple local remedies, assumes a dangerous form.

I had Catarrh about 15 years, and tried during the time everything I could hear of, but nothing did me any good. At last I came to the conclusion that Catarrh must be a blood disease, and decided to give S. S. S. a trial. I could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and continued it three or four months, or until I was cured. Have not taken anything for six years, and am just as well as I ever was.—K. HAYSON, Lapeer, Mich.

I had Catarrh so bad was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose and part of the bone sloughed off. The physicians gave me up as incurable. I determined to try S. S. S., and began to improve at once. It seemed to get at the seat of the disease, and after a few weeks' treatment I was entirely cured, and for more than seven years have had no sign of the disease.—MR. J. JOHNSON, FINE POLICE, Due West, S. C.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease—a blood disease which is frequently inherited, and only a blood medicine, such as S. S. S., can remove the hereditary taint, destroy the poisons that have been accumulating in the system for years perhaps, and restore the blood to a healthy and pure condition. The inflamed membranes and diseased glands are healed by the rich, pure blood which is carried to them, and the offensive discharges from the nose, and the terrible headache and neuralgic pains cease. Chronic cases of the most desperate character and apparently hopeless, have been cured completely and permanently by the use of S. S. S. Write our physicians fully about your case and they will cheerfully assist you by their advice. We charge nothing whatever for this service. Book free on application. THIRTY-FOUR YEARS SERVICE

Bishop McCloskey Will Sunday Celebrate His Consecration at Louisville.

The Rt. Rev. Wm. George McCloskey, Bishop of the Diocese of Kentucky, will Sunday celebrate the thirty-fourth anniversary of his consecration at Louisville, and the event will be mentioned from the pulpit of every Catholic church in Kentucky.

During his long service as Bishop of Kentucky Bishop McCloskey has rendered services not only to the Catholic church, but to the entire state of Kentucky that will be remembered long after he has passed away. For nearly a generation he has lived in Louisville ruling the affairs of the diocese with wisdom and skill, and by the piety and sanctity of his own life furnishing an example to both clergymen and laity. Today he is well high as vigorous as when he assumed the care of the diocese, and he keeps a perfect grasp on passing events.

Bishop McCloskey was born in New York state and was educated at Mt. St. Mary's college, in Maryland. He was ordained as a priest in 1852 by Archbishop Hughes in the old cathedral in New York in which he had been baptized.

In 1859 his name was called to the attention of Pope Pius IX. and he was summoned to Rome, and soon afterwards he was appointed president of the American college which his holiness had just established. For nine years he remained in Rome administering the affairs of the college with signal ability. During this period he was frequently at the Vatican and was always consulted by the pope in regard to American appointments.

In 1868 he was appointed bishop and was consecrated by Cardinal De Retz in the church of the American College. In October of the same year he went to Louisville and assumed active control of the diocese.

It would be difficult to give a history of Bishop McCloskey since he assumed control of the Catholic church in Kentucky. It is so bound up with the history and progress of the church in this state that the two may be said to be one. During his episcopacy the church has more than doubled in membership and broadened in every way. He is everywhere recognized as one of the foremost Catholic churchmen in America and has been more than once mentioned for an Archbishop.

IN THE CITY SCHOOLS

Mr. H. M. Wills, the Impersonator, to Give an Entertainment.

The Grade Work This Year in the Schools is Most Encouraging to All Teachers.

NEW COLORED PRINCIPAL PROBABLE

Superintendent Hatfield of the local public schools has closed an engagement with Mr. H. M. Wills, a celebrated impersonator, of Indianapolis, Ind., to appear here on Friday afternoon and night, March 31.

Mr. Wills has traveled much and is well known in Tennessee and Virginia and also in other Southern states. He makes a specialty of filling engagements with schools and the proceeds of the entertainment here will go to the library fund of the grammar grades of the local public schools. The High School library has been greatly improved lately and this move is made to establish a small library in each grade of the grammar schools for supplemental reading.

In the afternoon, beginning with 3:30 o'clock, Mr. Wills will give a 10 cent matinee to the school children, and in the evening at 8 o'clock he will give an entertainment to both children and adults. The admission will be 15, 25 and 35 cents, the latter being charged for reserved seats. The entertainment will be given in the auditorium of the high school building and a liberal patronage is expected.

Meetings of all the grades have been held this week and the reports of the teachers show a very enthusiastic lot of pupils. The literary departments of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades are showing better work than ever before, which is very encouraging to the teachers and the superintendent. The literary department has been revised and better work shown this year and it was the purpose of the superintendent to make this a feature of the work.

It is said that Thomas Lawrence, who has been teaching for Prof. Shaffer at Garfield school, colored, will be elected to fill the place permanently at the next meeting of the board. The members do not appear to like the way Shaffer acted, and as he got out of his own accord they seem to think he can remain out.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT.

He Will Come to Paducah to Investigate Leather Worker's Trouble.

It Seems There is Dissatisfaction Because Some of the Men Are Out of Work.

The local leatherworkers' union has called on the president of the union, Mr. Balsager of St. Louis, who is now in California, to come to Paducah and settle the difference between Mr. E. Rehkopf and the local leatherworkers.

It seems from statements made that the agreement reached relative to the scale presented Monday did not touch on the number of men the proprietor should employ, and he is not working full force in the collar shops. This the men do not like, and have called on the president of the national union to come to the city and settle the trouble. He will arrive in a few days.

It was thought that when the scale was signed up no more trouble would be experienced, but it seems that more is probable, as men thrown out of work are not likely to be satisfied. Under the former management of the collar shops, when Captain William Kraus was foreman, he would always tell his men when the dull season was reached to look out for other jobs and in this way avoided all trouble that might come from laying the men off without notice, and it is said that this was not done this year. As a consequence they have been taken unaware and are out of work.

Mortality Among Soldiers.

Under favorable conditions of peace the mortality among soldiers is practically the least known, with a death rate of only five in every 1,000. Compared with a soldier's life the peaceful days of a clergyman are full of danger. The death rate in 11 in 1,000, or more than twice as great as that of his mili-

Scheme to Profit by the Vanity of One's Fellow.

The latest scheme to make the vanity of every day citizens a source of profit comes in the customary form of the hlogographical encyclopedia, but it veils its purpose with a refinement of the old time business like offer to publish the picture of the person approached in case an much money is paid. The present enterprise approaches the victim with the announcement that the issue of a new book of the lives of prominent Americans is contemplated and that his history is to be handed down to posterity in the volume. He is requested to "co-operate to the extent of $25" in the undertaking. He has, of course, been selected for the volume on account of his importance and his picture is also to be put in when substantial evidence of his co-operation is forthcoming. Doubtless this scheme will be as successful, so far as the profits of its promoters are concerned, as the others that have preceded it. The circulators are, as a rule, sent to men who have acquired a certain prominence of a kind that does not bring them before the public. They see an opportunity to be put into books in which they have seen others with no more right than themselves figure among the prominent men of the day; so they pay the sum asked for the privilege. As the number of men able to afford this luxury grows larger every day, the making of such books is likely to be a source of profit for some time to come.—New York Sun.

LAPSES FROM RELIGION.

Mysticism Spreads Like Fungus Over Much Recent Literature.

Every lapse in thought from the Christian standard spells degradation for multitudes. But it spells misery, too. The experiment of life reduced to a play of molecular forces does not correspond to the nature of things; it is a dream upon which reality is always breaking in, and the dreamer cannot sleep in peace, says the National Review. Hence the innumerable nightmares which weigh upon modern cities, and the more advanced their condition, so much the more do they breed these unpleasant phenomena. The American prides himself on his smartness; but it is in his busiest marketplace that spiritualism, faith-healing, and impostures wilder than these flourish exceedingly. In Paris of late years every conceivable superstition has found a home. Among ourselves, the temper which welcomed Neo-Buddhism is not extinct, and ridicule fails to kill the varieties of occult science. An unwholesome mysticism spreads like a fungus over much recent literature, and it will continue to spread so long as Prof. Haeckel's unbelief darkens the sky. Let it be granted that there is an eclipse of faith; who will expect from the abyss of nihilism to see a fresh dawn traveling up toward the zenith? These are tokens, rot of health, but of a disease which is too deeply seated for the stethoscope or scalpel of crude materialism to reach it, still less to contribute toward its removal.

TRAGEDY OF A LOCOMOTIVE.

Agonizing Ending of the Career of a World's Fair Wonder.

Engine No. 999, so the types have told, draws a daily milk train on the New York Central railroad. Therein lies the tragedy of a locomotive. Eight years ago this same 999 was a pet exhibit in the machinery department of the World's Fair at Chicago. It was the monarch of the rails, the holder of a world's record, the subject of great newspaper headlines, and the inspiration of editorials on attainable speed. In May, 1893, without breathing hard, No. 999 did a nine-mile epurt on a level track at the rate of 102 miles an hour. On the same trip and many times afterward the great locomotive drew the Empire State express during a long run at a sustained speed of more than a mile a minute. It was photographed in its great act by the biograph process, and to this day, on countless moving picture screens, breathless music hall crowds may see its counterfeit presentment approach and vanish in a calcium glare. And now 999 draws a milk train! Having traveled "the pace that kills," it has gone to the rest cure. Overtrained, like a human athlete, the ex-champion of the steel highway must henceforth "live softly" all its days. But what a charming it would give the fresh Orange county cream if some day old 999 should suddenly awake, as did the old descender famous trotter, to a revived sense of its former prowess!—New York Sun.

Child's Recognize Him.

"Yes, I have a pretty big mouth, for a fact," admitted the candid man, "but I have learned to keep it shut, and that counts for something when you take your levels. I received a lesson when I was a small boy that I have never forgotten. I was born and brought up on a farm and I had the country-boy habit of going around with my mouth wide open, especially if there was anything unusual going on. One day an uncle, whom I had not seen for a year, paid us a visit.

"Hello, uncle," said I, looking up at him with my mouth opened like a barn door. He looked at me for a moment without answering, and then said: "Close your mouth, sonny, so I can see who you are."

"I took the lesson to my heart," said the candid man, according to the Detroit Free Press, "and resolved that from that day I would not allow my

CAMP OF ADIRONDACK GUIDES AT NATIONAL SPORTSMEN'S SHOW, NEW YORK.

This year's annual show of the National Sportsmen's association, now under way in Madison Square Garden, New York, promises to be the most successful affair of the kind that has ever been held. Besides the usual exhibits of sporting goods, several new features have been arranged. The center of the big amphitheater has been transformed into an ideal sylvan spot in the shape of a wooded island. About this flows a realistic trout brook, which comes to a glorious and spectacular finish by plunging over an artificial fall. Along the shores of the brook are located the camps of the Adirondack, Moosehead, and Catskill guides.

Arab Harem in Mexico City.
A genuine Arab's harem has come to light in this city, or rather to the ears of the police, through the complaint of a young Mexican girl, who some time ago was prevailed upon to become an inmate, says the Mexican Herald. The lord of the harem was an Arab known as Al Isham, who came here with a number of his tribe, and finally set up housekeeping with four comely damsels of the tribe on Callejon de la Rosa. The Mexican girl, whose name was Soledad Gonzales, was taken to the house, where some special marriage rites were performed, and she was arrayed in Arab costume. She was much disconcerted at finding there were four wives already, but says she finally became resigned to the life.
Her lord and master gave her a severe beating, however, and making her escape, she applied to the police for protection. The house was accordingly raided, but the wily Arab had got wind of the affair and in the traditional manner of his countryman, had "folded his tents" and "sneaked."

THE RIVER NEWS.
(BY W. F. LAMBIN, REPORTER.)

The New Orleans Picayune says:
"Steamboat owners are getting ready to use the Beaumont product on their boats, among them being the captain of a big cotton packet, and it is expected that as soon as there are better facilities in the harbor here for obtaining the oil a number of the larger boats will adopt the new fuel. Among the vessels in the local inspection district that have been granted permits to use petroleum as fuel, and several of which are hauling it with success, are the Independent, Grover Cleveland, George W. Kelly, Louis F. Felicians, El Vivo, El Liso, El Mozo, L. W. Brown, and Olympia, of New Orleans; the William Kyle, of Franklin; F. B. Williams, of Patterson; Shamrock, of Morgan City; Gertrude,
of Des Allamands, and John J. Brady, William Orton and Buckingham, of Belle Isle. At Mobile ten tugs and steamboats have been given permission to use oil, and at Galveston eight are using the fuel."

Captain Wm. Egan, in command of the government lighthouse steamer Lilly, that makes winter quarters here every season, leaves for St. Louis tomorrow morning. The host of friends in this city will greatly regret his departure and hope that at some time in the near future he may conclude to adopt Paducah as the future residence of himself and family. Captain Egan is a big Elk as well as a big-hearted specimen of an old-fashioned Kentuckian.

So long as the stage of water remains good a large amount of business will be accomplished along the Pittsburg wharves. The coal companies are taking every advantage of the present good stage and as fast as possible have their boats return from down river points and start them out again.

The name of the boat that capsize on the lower Mississippi proved to be the Providence, and not the City of Providence. The latter is a large boat which it would be almost impossible to turn over. The accident was similar to the City of Gloucester disaster above here last August.

The weather is all that could be asked for, even if made to order could not be improved on. Our prediction of the 30 rise will not miss the mark one inch. This morning the gauge read 39 feet 6 and rising very slowly.
Will likely come to a stand tonight.

Martin Connelly, who has been in charge of the Evansville wharfboat, has quit his job to be shipping clerk for the Ballards. Mr. Connelly is Martin's successor, and both are good men. Connelly was very popular with shippers and rivermen.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 39.6 on the gauge, a rise of 0.4 in last 24 hours. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 46, Fell. Observer.

Portsmouth, O., is "in a hole." All the railroads and steamboats have advanced the rates on freight to Cincinnati, and the Portsmouth people threaten to put in a line of independent boats.

Captain John S. Summers, with his splendid towboat and mates, arrived last evening from Parsonsburg, W. Va., and will enter the towing business here.

The Joe Fowler sonuded her fami-lar bugle for this port 7:30 this morning. She had a very good trip and cleared on return trip 10 a. m.

The towboat J. B. Williams from New Orleans passed up last night at 10 o'clock with thirty empties and a small towboat attached.

The new towboat John S. Summers, Captain John Throp in command, left this morning for a trip up the Ohio to loan with ties.

Captain James Till, in command of the J. M. Howell, left today for Tennessee river with empties to load for Tennessee river.

Mr. Frank Spunking, of Port Clinton, O., has built a new kind of boat for use on the Ohio. It has two bows and two sterns.

The City of Memphis is due today from Mond City. She is enroute for the Tennessee river to load for St.
Louis.

Business is partly suspended at the machine ways, but not altogether, and from present indications the worst is over.

Billy Cox of Evansville, who killed his wife last Tuesday and then took his own life, was a well known river man.

The Dick Fowler slipped on schedule time this morning with an excellent trip for Cairo and way points.

The Mary Stewart is due this evening from Golconda; leaves on return trip tomorrow at noon.

The It. W. Battorff leaves Nashville tomorrow noon for Paducah, due next Sunday afternoon.

Captain Chesterfield of the Metropolis and Joppa packet is in the city.
The Russell Lord leaves for Tennessee river this evening.

The Victor has gone to Evansville with a tow of logs.

A SEVERE COLD FOR

THREE MONTHS.
The following letter from A. J.
Nussbaum of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet it did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes.
J. C. GILBERT.

DIED OF BLOOD POISONING.

Mr. Blake Whitlock of the Bonds Station section of the county died yesterday afternoon from blood poisoning, from which he had suffered for many years. He was about forty-six years old and leaves a wife and adopted child, the latter being the daughter of the late Mr.
Frank Phillips, deputy jailer. The deceased had many friends in the city.

DANGERS OF PNEUMONIA.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia, which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia.
J. C. GILBERT.

MYSTERIOUS STREAM.

Residents near Joppa, Ill., are mystified over the appearance of a well on the farm of W. C. Sexton. A hole suddenly appeared in the ground in a field that had been plowed over for years regularly, and about fifteen feet below the surface of the ground there is a stream of running water. Its depth and properties have not been investigated. The inhabitants seem afraid to go near the place.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and affords perfect security from an attack of pneumonia. Refuse substitutes.
J. C. GILBERT.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"An optimist is a believer; he who has confidence in human nature, in society, in its future."

PLACING THE BLAME.

It is the opinion of many military authorities who have been in the Philippines that the insurrection would have been over long ago had it not been for the so-called "peace party" in the United States. General Funston, who has just returned, made a speech at a Chicago banquet the other night, to which he declared:

"Had it not been for the so-called peace party in the United States the insurrection would have been suppressed finally in January, 1900. Since that time 600 lives have been sacrificed and millions of dollars have been spent. Were it not for the hope of the few leaders still under arms that the United States is on the verge of civil war in their behalf all resistance would be at an end."

After detailing some of the mean, contemptible tricks of the treacherous natives, he continued:

"The great mass of the natives in the Philippines do not know what independence is. Ninety-five per cent want to be left alone and prefer to be governed by others than themselves. The case of Cuba has been held as an example of what we could do in the Far East."

"I believe my experience in both countries has given me an insight in the character of both peoples. There are forty Cuban leaders who are the snipers of any leader the Filipinos ever had. There is no comparison between the two. And I am not lying awake, either, thinking of how I love the Cubans."

He also made the assertion that out of 700 natives captured and sentenced to death, 500 were imprisoned instead.

The sooner people take a common sense view of the Philippine situation, and do away with the mandarin sentiment that prompts them to extend to the lazy, unenterprising Filipinos undeserved sympathy, the sooner will the insurrection be suppressed. The Spaniards, after all, may not have been so cruel as the world has been led to believe. Years of experience taught them that there was but one way to conquer the rebels in Cuba and the Philippines, and that was to kill them, and the Spanish pursued this policy wherever possible until the United States interfered.

Secretary Root is rapidly proving his ability by his excellent work in military affairs. He appeared before the senate committee a day or two ago and made a fine argument in favor of the bill creating a general staff, and consolidating the quartermaster, commissary and pay bureaus of the army under one head, and known as the supply bureau. He said the experience of the department during the war with Spain had demonstrated the wisdom of this consolidation, and that it was demanded by all considerations of expediency, efficiency and economy. He said the creation of a general staff would give an official standing to many army officers now detailed for special work in the war department. The work upon which they are engaged, he said, the preparation of plans for military organization, etc., is very necessary in case of hostilities.

The house has passed a bill that ought to become a law. It is to prevent professionalism among jurors, and prohibits a man from acting as a juror twice in one year. If a law could be passed improving the intelligence of the average juror, it, too, would be a good one. It is a fact generally known, especially among those who frequent court rooms, that there are a lot of indolent, and usually ignorant men, who are always to be found about the room waiting to be placed on a jury. Some of them serve at every term of court. They are usually men of narrow views and limited education, or they would have some more commendable way of making a living, and are not the kind of men that the average person would desire to judge the merits of any case in which his interests were involved.

If what is claimed at Frankfort is true, the appropriation bill for a Kentucky exhibit at the World's Fair will be defeated because the capitol appropriation bill was. It is claimed by the friends of the capitol bill that it was the friends of the other measure who defeated it, and that they will retaliate by beating the world's fair bill. This sort of business shows what kind of men we have in the legislature. They are willing to sacrifice honor, pride, and everything else to gratify petty spite. They are willing to make Kentucky appear in the eyes of the other states as a bankrupt commonwealth, or one composed of men without pride or enterprise, and to cause every citizen of the state to feel ashamed of it.

Policemen will hereafter probably have to wait until the conviction of a person arrested for felony, before they can collect the two dollars the state pays for arrests in felony cases. The bill making this provision has passed in the legislature, and will probably become a law. It is generally regarded as a good one, as many a person is charged with a felony principally because the officer making the arrest, and who usually swears out the warrant, gets two dollars for it, no matter whether the charge is ever sustained or not. It cost the state over $100,000 last year.

The recent wreck on the Southern Pacific railroad near El Paso, Texas, has already cost the company in settling for claims alone, $73,000, and there are many more to hear from. One man who lost three children in the wreck was paid $10,000, and signed a contract obligating himself to institute no legal proceedings against the road. The promptness with which road has settled claims is said to be unprecedented. Four claim agents have been kept busy constantly since the wreck.

If Governor Beckham puts his fist to the hill passed yesterday mail cannot be killed in Kentucky for the purpose of sale for two years. And outside hunters will have to pay $25 for the privilege of hunting in the state. None of this, however, worries the hunters in this section of the state. When birds are hard to find here Paducah citizens cross over into Illinois or Tennessee, and generally manage to get all they want—but don't say anything about it.

Hon. Dave Colson of Bell county has announced his candidacy for Congress, to succeed Congressman Boreling in the Eleventh district. Mr. Colson is one of the best known and ablest Republicans in the state of Kentucky, and is liked wherever he is known. He is a most attractive gentleman, both personally and intellectually, and will make a good race.

Colonel R. C. Clowrey, the newly elected president of the Western Union Telegraph company, worked his way up from the humble position of messenger boy. This is not very remarkable, however, when we remember that in those days messenger boys were perhaps not so slow as they are now.

The only bill introduced at the instance of the humane societies is that prohibiting the docking of horses, and it will probably be defeated, as the owners of horses seem opposed to it, and have a stronger pull than the other fellows.

General Methuen was not killed after all. People who were horrified at the alleged account of the execution of Commodore Schepers should remember that everything you see in the telegraphic dispatches isn't necessarily so.

Lesington thinks the defeat of the capitol bill means that ultimately the state capital will be moved to Lexington.

Paducah is not a second class city. She is a first-class city—but in the second class.

THE GUN CLUB.

Meeting Tonight to Reorganize For the Summer Work.

Practice Begins at Once For the Great American Tournament.

The Paducah Gun club will meet tonight at the city hall and elect officers for the ensuing year. The officers will probably be:

James M. Lang, president; W. A. Davis, vice-president; P. H. Stewart, secretary; Dick Rudy, treasurer; Ben Welle, captain; John Dean, referee. The club will immediately improve its grounds at La Belle park, and perhaps get new traps for both practice and expert shooting.

Immediately, also, practice shoots for the American tournament at Kansas City from March 31st to April 5th will begin, and at least one live bird shoot, and perhaps two, will be held each week until it comes off. About half a dozen members will attend and enter the competition, there already being over 300 entries.

WANTED A GUARDIAN.

MARSHAL CROW GAVE THE APPLICANT A HOME, BUT HE DISAPPEARED.

Mr. A. M. Ammond, an actor of the Telephone Girl company, who was dropped by the company here this week, appeared at the city hall yesterday afternoon late and asked the marshal to take charge of him.

"Why come into my office," the marshal said and after they had been seated he asked the man what he had done.

It seems that he had been imbibing too freely, and was on the verge of delirium tremens. He wanted the marshal to take charge of him until he had recovered. He said that the best friend he had ever had was a marshal and that he thought the city hall was the best place for him in such a condition. Marshal Crow told him to make himself at home, but he left last night and has not returned.

KINGS RETURNED

ONE OF THE GIRLS WAS ARRESTED, BUT HAD NOTHING.

Yesterday two women of ill repute, claiming to come from Mayfield, arrived in the city in a half intoxicated condition and proceeded to Court street to secure lodging in one of the resorts of that locality, which they failed to do. They remained there some time talking to the women and left. Soon after their departure two fine rings were missed and the officers were notified of the affair and Officer Orr, of the depot beat, instructed to keep a lookout for them. He found that they had gone to the depot again and were preparing to return to Mayfield or some other southern point, but when he reached the depot the girls ran, one going in one direction and the other taking an opposite course. One was arrested and taken to the station where a search was made but nothing was found. The girl's companion was never arrested but the rings have been returned.

PENSION BILL VETOED

GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA DISAPPROVES ON TECHNICAL GROUNDS.

Richmond, Va., March 14.—Governor Montague has vetoed the joint assembly resolution appropriating $300,000 for pensions for Confederate veterans, on constitutional and technical grounds.

His message says in part: "The justice and expediency of pensions are not involved. All are agreed that the state should do its utmost to aid the needy and deserving veterans, but all must concede that the needy and deserving alone should be the recipients of the money appropriated. The present law is far from satisfactory, resulting in inequalities and injustice which should not be possible under any future pension legislation."

CANAL LEGISLATION UNLIKELY

Washington, March 14.—Senator Morgan is proceeding to plunge ahead with his canal bill. This, in the opinion of some senators, may send the bill over to the next session. The senate is almost certain to divide in the choice of routes and there is not much chance of passing a bill this session.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Col. Q. Q. Quigley and Grand Daughter in a Cyclone Recently.

Their Train Hit by a Twister, But All the Passengers Escaped Injury.

Col. Q. Q. Quigley and grand daughter, Miss Faith Langstaff, were here a few days since for Pass Christian, were aboard the train that was caught in the terrible cyclone of March 12. Letters have just been received here stating that they reached New Orleans an hour late, but were most grateful to get there at all, and uninjured. The windows of the car were all broken and the trainmen said all that saved the train and its passengers from being blown over the embankment was that the trees fell across it and not the other way. They saw an entire family living in a cabin by the roadside injured and their home destroyed. It was certainly a narrow escape and all here who read of it yesterday little dreamed they were so nearly represented in it. It is a matter of congratulation to the friends of Colonel Quigley and Miss Langstaff that they suffered no injury.

OPEN SALOONS

AND A KILLING OCCURRED FIVE DAYS LATER AT CADIZ.

Hopkinsville, March 14.—Licenses for four saloons were granted in Cadiz, and they opened for business Monday, March 3, for the first time in several years. The first killing occurred Saturday night, March 8th.

Scott Thomas, after drinking heavily at the new liquor houses and becoming intoxicated, went to the home of Alfred Bridges about eight miles from town, where an entertainment was in progress. He became very boisterous and Bridges asked John Francis to take him outside. Francis led Thomas from the room into the hall, with Bridges walking behind them. Thomas pulled loose and, pulling a pistol from his pocket, fired at both the other men. He missed Francis, but Bridges was shot directly through the heart, dying instantly. A second shot was fired at Francis and then, in the excitement, Thomas made his escape and has not been captured. The Bridges family have offered a reward of $200 for him.

The men were both prominent in their neighborhood and were cousins. Bridges leaves a wife and eight young children.

FOR HARVARD.

MRS. HUNTINGTON, ROCKEFELLER AND MORGAN CONTRIBUTE NEARLY $3,000,000 TO MEDICAL BRANCH.

Boston, Mass., March 14.—A gift of $250,000 from Mrs. Collis P. Huntington, announced today, more than completes the sum offered by John D. Rockefeller of New York for the enlargement and endowment of the Harvard medical school. Mrs. Huntington's subscription is specifically for the erection of a building in memory of her late husband, to be called the Collis P. Huntington Laboratory of Pathology and Bacteriology.

With Mr. Rockefeller's gift and the pledge made by J. P. Morgan last June to give three buildings at a cost exceeding $1,000,000, an aggregate of $2,251,225 will be available for the use of the medical school.

METRIC SYSTEM

BILL PROVIDING FOR GOVERNMENT ADOPTION INTRODUCED IN HOUSE.

Washington, March 14.—The bill to adopt the weights and measures of the metric system as the standard for the United States, was introduced by Representative Starbuck of Colorado, and ordered favorably reported by the House committee on coinage, weights and measures. It provides: "That after January 1, 1904, all the departments of the government of the United States, in the transaction of all business requiring the use of weights and measurements except in completing the survey of public lands, shall use only the metric system, and after January 1, 1907, the weights and measures and metric system shall be the legal standard weights and measures of and in the United States."

POLICE COURT.

Caldwell County Man Arrested on Three Charges.

A Few Misdemeanor Cases Tried in Police Court Today.

W. F. Eskridge, claiming to be an officer of the law in Caldwell county, is in a pretty tight box here as a result of a little too much whiskey.

This morning he was drinking at the Richmond bar when he started a quarrel with a gentleman named Harrison. He lost his temper and drew a large 48 blue steel revolver and began to flourish it about. Officers Woods and Collins were summoned and arrested him and three warrants have been issued against the gentleman, one for a breach of the peace, another for carrying concealed and deadly weapons and another for flourishing a pistol. His case was continued until tomorrow, when he is more able to testify.

F. W. Penor and Frank McCaffrey, two steamboat men, the former on the government steamer Lilly, were fined $5 and costs each for a breach of the peace. They had a fight, but no one was injured.

William Harrison, white, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

Walter Shannon and Ella Hill, colored, were arraigned for a breach of the peace and the case continued.

Rube McGrew, white, was fined $10 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Walter Starks, colored, who is charged with having broken into an I. C. box car, was again before the court, but his case was continued until tomorrow morning.

LEGALLY DEAD.

JIM YOUNGER UNABLE TO ENTER INTO MARRIAGE CONTRACT AND ASKS GOVERNOR VAN SANT TO AID HIM.

St. Paul, Minn., March 14.—Jim Younger wants to get married. He cannot, because he is legally dead; hence is unable to enter into any contract. Younger submitted the question of whether or not he could wed to Governor Van Sant, who has looked into the matter, with some surprising results. In Minnesota a man who is a life prisoner is civilly dead. The only way he can make any binding contract in the eyes of the law is through the board which paroles him. It is not probable, however, that the three members of the board of control, separately or as a whole, will agree to enter into a marriage contract for the benefit of the paroled life convict.

The only way for Jim Younger to become a married man in Minnesota is to get a pardon. Another phase of the law is that neither Jim Younger nor his brother Cole, if they establish any business of their own, as has been contemplated, can be held for any debts which they may incur. Younger's application says nothing of the proposed bride.

CONSIDERATIONS OF MONEY.

A Writer Protests Against the Taking of Interest.

Such laws as the prohibition to take interest for money loaned to one in distress (Exodus, xxii, 24; Leviticus, xxv, 36, compare Psalm, xvi, 5) is a protest against the business of money lending as carried on in Babylon, where thousands of tablets found beneath the mounds reveal the extent to which this enterprise was developed in the commercial centers of the Euphrates valley. Of course, without money lending commerce on a large scale cannot be carried on, but this is exactly what the Pentateuch aims to avoid, says Morris Jastrow, in the Independent. The ideal which it holds is not commerce, but agriculture. It has no sympathy with commercial expansion; it does not hold out the prospect of the people becoming the rivals of the Babylonians and the Egyptians, the great merchants of antiquity. The progeny of Abraham is to be "as numerous as the sands of the sea," but nowhere is wealth held out either as a goal or even a possibility. The picture which the compilers of the Pentateuch had in mind was that of each man sitting with his family under the shade of his fig tree. Every paterfamilias was to own the land which he cultivated. Country life is given the preference over city life. Hence interest is intentionally tabooed as an effective blow against converting the people into a commercial nation.

Natural Reasons for Friendship.

ORIGINAL AS BEEKEEPER.

David Norton, of Plainfield, Conn., tells of His Experiences.

One of the most original beekeepers in Connecticut is David Norton of Plainfield, says a correspondent of the Hartford Courant. Mr. Norton is over 50 years old and is in the bee business with his son. At a recent meeting of the Connecticut beekeepers' association, Mr. Norton spoke at length of his bees and of his method of working over them. In the summer this enthusiastic apiarist sits out among his bees under a large yellow umbrella, and often naps there, lulled to sleep by the humming. He handles the bees fearlessly, and is never stung by them. This year the honey produced by his bees exceeded largely the amount of neighboring beekeepers. In his apiary, he says, the bees enter each other's hives indiscriminately if they find their own hive crowded, and deposit their honey burdens, and they are like one happy family. He observes none of the usual precautions in regard to putting a new queen in a hive—simply after the colony has been queenless awhile, he puts the new queen in, and the bees never fail to give her a kind reception. This is contrary to most apiarists' experience, as a new queen is usually placed in a wire-screened little box that is plugged with sugar. The bees observe their new queen through the wire and thus become accustomed to her; then they let out the sugar plug and free her and she walks quietly on to the comb in the hive. If a new queen, ordinarily, is put unprotected into a colony of strange bees they kill her. Mr. Norton approves of a very large hive, so constructed that it can be enlarged or contracted. In the heat of the day the hives in this unique apiary are sheltered under umbrellas. In regard to moving hives of bees, Mr. Norton says he experiences no inconvenience from losing bees, as in most cases where the bees return to the old location; but he says his bees after flying out immediately note the new spot, and invariably return to it. A suggestion offered by Mr. Norton whereby bees would always know their own hive, which he had tried experimentally, was to paint each hive a different color. The bees remembered the color of their own hive easily, just as they do the tints of the blossoms. Mr. Norton thinks that the bees have become so accustomed to himself and his son that their working among them does not in the least disturb them, therefore these beekeepers can open a hive and examine the combs at leisure, while the bees fly about and do not get into an uproar. That there is a great future for the beekeeper and large profits in the bee business when properly conducted, Mr. Norton does not doubt, but says that his only regret is that he did not begin at beekeeping earlier in life.—Chicago News.

RUSSIAN POLICE METHODS.

Torture Abolished by Alexander I. Freed Under Nicholas II.

The century of the abolition in Russia of the torture as an organized system of legal inquiry has provided the Russian press with a text for numerous articles on the humanity and progress of their country. No doubt it was a great step to take, but it has still to be ratified in practice before Russia has any particular occasion to rejoice. In the old days the torture was applied to all suspects as a first means of inquiry, and when the unhappy wretch had been compelled to confess something—usually, as the Empress Catherine expressed it, anything which was put into his mouth—he was subjected to a second "inquiry" by the same or more severe means, in order to secure confirmation of his first confession. Occasionally the whole process was repeated twice more, with a view to extorting the names of accomplices. The tortures applied were much the same as in other countries, but could be added to by the ingenuity of individual officials.

Thus, during the reign of Anne, when the ex-torture boy and favorite of the empress, Blron, was in power, it was a favorite form of torture to stuff a culprit naked in the snow during the severe northern frosts of midwinter, either ice-cold or cold and hot alternately, a form of "inquiry" which had the disadvantage of too often killing the poor wretch before he had time to confess anything. Thumbcrews, the clog and every form of whipping and beating, with almost as many names for the various processes as are to be found in the dialogues of the slaves of Roman comedy, were everyday attributes of the old Russian halls of justice.

Just 100 years ago the Emperor Alexander I abolished the torture as being a shame and a reproach to all mankind. But he forgot to order the legal instruments of torture to be destroyed and those in use on and were undisturbed for another quarter of a century. Officially the torture was, of course, actually disappeared—at any rate, those forms of it which require elaborate instruments for their application are no more to be found. In fact, however, says the London Standard's Moscow correspondent, and in secret, there is a great deal of torture going on in the most enlightened centers of the Russian empire at the present day, and it is exercised by the police entrusted with the discovery of crime, the "detective police."

Conflicts End in Revenge.

Conflicts in Sing Sing prison enjoyed a sweet morsel of revenge the other day, when George Blisset, the New York policeman enfeebled for extortion, arrived there to serve his time. As he was led to his cell the other prisoners jeered lustily, for they all had learned of his coming. Some particularly jubilant yells were uttered by the fellows whom Blisset had helped to striped suits.

The latest event upon "Arizona" was pronounced by the Chicago American, which in commenting on the recent Auditorium engagement in that city said: "Arizona" is a play which touches the heart strings. Augustus Thomas stirring comedy drama of the Southwestern frontier with its lita vagueros and gentler types of Arizona womanhood, is already a universal favorite. Still it is gratifying to note that the blue critics of metropolitan circles have not tired of its colorful lines. "Arizona," with the entire cast and production, as presented at the Chicago Auditorium will be seen at The Kentucky tonight.

Ellery's Royal Italian band, composed of fifty selected Italian musicians, will make its initial appearance in this city tomorrow afternoon and night. The band came to this city endorsed by press and public alike as the greatest military concert band that has ever visited the United States. Its successes during this western tour which it is now concluding, has been simply phenomenal. In every city which the band has appeared in there has been a demand for return engagements by the crowds, whose enthusiasm has known no bounds. The unstinted praise given the band everywhere is certainly sufficient proof of all that is claimed for it, that it is the greatest military concert band that has ever toured America.

To follow in the steps of Nat C. Goodwin would be a doubtful undertaking for most actors, but as S. Miller Kent has already accomplished this feat with success, there is no question about the popularity or artistic tone of the production of "The Cowboy and the Lady" at The Kentucky next Tuesday night. A year ago in London, Goodwin was presenting "An American Citizen" when he was suddenly taken ill and Mr. Kent was called upon to save the play. Toils and learning the role, lines, business, etc., in twenty-four hours, and went on in the long and different part letter perfect. Every paper in London commented on the cleverness of the work. This season Mr. Kent will be seen in what might be called another "Goodwin role." For several seasons Mr. Kent has supported the leading stars of the country and now as a star himself, he will have an excellent opportunity in a congenial part. The role of Teddy North, the cowboy of the play, calls for magnetism, youth, dash and good looks, and none of these are lacking in S. Miller Kent.

THE PADUCAH FURNITURE MANUFACTURING CO.

Council Decides This the Best Thing to Be Done in Armour Matter.

Another Hucker Ordinance Was Passed Last Night, Making the License $30.

CALLING MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

The council had a called meeting last night, with Messrs. Brooks, Hannan, Reed, Taylor, Potter, Jackson, Niehns, Woolfolk and Himmel present.

The mayor was authorized to make some minor changes in the telephone contract, a few words having been erroneously transcribed, it is claimed.

An ordinance was then introduced requiring an annual license of $30 a year for hucksters or others selling goods. This does not apply to farmers or grocers.

The matter of Armour & Co. placing their new building at First and Broadway on three and one-half feet of the city's ground was brought up and it appeared from the discussion that followed that the reason it was done was because the city engineer had made a mistake in giving the plat, supposing that the property was sixty-six feet, when it was only sixty feet. The contractor was present and said it would cost $1,000 to tear away the work already done, and the council finally decided the most advisable thing to do was to lease the railroad company the ground, which was due in an ordinance, leasing it for thirty years, or so long as occupied by their building. The ordinance was given first passage and the council adjourned.

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCK HOLDERS OF AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY HELD AT JERSEY CITY.

New York, March 14.—The stockholders of the American Tobacco company held their annual meeting in Jersey City and the old board of directors was re-elected for a term of three years, with the exception of H. D. Lee, who was succeeded by C. C. Dink. The report of Treasurer H. D. Lee said the net earnings for the year, after deducting all charges and expenses of management, were $6,647,414.

STILL HOPEFUL.

KENTUCKY AFTER AN ARMY POST SITE.

Louisville, March 14.—Mr. Logan Murray is still hopeful of securing one of the new army camps for Kentucky. Congressman Zenor of the New Albany district of Indiana has been asked to help in pushing Kentucky's claim and has replied that he will be more than glad to do so. Mr. Murray has one site just above Louisville and another below the city to offer. Either of these would be, he says, of almost as much benefit to Indiana as Kentucky. Mr. Zenor recognizes this and promises to do all he can for Kentucky.

NO RAISE HERE.

THE ORDERED INCREASE WILL NOT AFFECT THIS SECTION.

Stamp Deputy U. C. Ruse of the Board of Insurance Underwriters has received a letter from Secretary Nelson of the Kentucky and Tennessee Board of Underwriters stating that the ordered increase of 25 per cent in rates will not affect Paducah. As the cities in this section are to be rated under the new approved schedule, and it makes necessary increases, the 25 per cent increase would be a double raise and unjust. Hence there will be no increase here.

Rather Revolting Story Told by a Kentucky Bride.

Hackman Alleged to Have Taken Her to a Negro Resort in Metropolis.

Hackman Pete Haynes, at Metropolis, is badly wanted for alleged indignities imposed on a young married woman from Kentucky. The Metropolis Herald says:

Monday evening a young couple from Dycoborg, Ky., came to Metropolis on the Cowling for the purpose of being married. They were Robert A. Dougherty and Miss Roberta Simmons and the two were accompanied by Mrs. Simmons, a brother of the girl.

They were married at the office of Judge Liggett and the trio got into Haynes' cab, which was waiting outside, and directed that they be driven to the Julian hotel. The young man was both drinking and it is supposed they stopped on the way at a saloon to get a drink. The details at this juncture are hard to determine, but from the somewhat excited story of the girl it seems that when the young man got out Haynes immediately drove off, telling her he would take her on to the hotel. He drove about town for some time and finally stopped before a place which, according to the girl's description, is the colored hotel known as the Williamsen boarding house, where Haynes has been stopping. She was assisted out of the cab and up a stairway in the house. Haynes led the way into a dark room and closed the door. When in there, the bride said, he made indecent proposals to her. She became alarmed and asked him to open the door. Instead of complying he locked it.

Then thoroughly frightened, she threatened to call for help and when he saw that she so intended he unlocked the door and took her back to the cab. He at once drove her to the house of her uncle, Chas. Gniatt, on lower Ferry street, at her demand and left her there.

Haynes has disappeared and cannot be found. The husband and brother looked for him for two days, but could not find him.

GLOBES STOLEN.

THE PALMER HOUSE IS GREATLY IMPOSED ON BY BOYS.

Proprietor Reed of the Palmer House is compelled to take prompt steps to prevent the theft of electric globes from the hotel. They are stolen at the rate of about $1.50 worth a day, and sold to merchants and others. Boys are usually the thieves. They take the globes from the writing room, hall and other places, and sell them for whatever they can get. The thieves are white as well as colored. Yesterday a small negro was caught with two globes in his pocket. He was not arrested, but will likely not be caught about the hotel again soon.

One thing that Mr. Reed cannot understand is why merchants buy the globes from boys. Any sensible man knows that small boys have no business with them, and the presumption is that they are stolen. When a boy offers to sell the globes the case should be reported to the police. Mr. Reed has found where a number of globes stolen from him have been sold as they are of a peculiar kind and nowhere else in the city.

CIRCUIT COURT.

TOMORROW THE TERM WILL END AT BENTON—LIT-TLE DONE.

The Beaten circuit court will adjourn tomorrow at noon after a busy term, but not much important business was transacted. The most important case on the equity docket was settled yesterday by Attorney William Reed of the city.

The case was a suit for the settlement of the estate of Thomas McElrath, and the case had been on the docket for more than three years without any definite action. O. H. Wreather and wife were charged with advances of $1,280, and the amount was reduced to $480, thereby saving the client $800. This was about the most important thing done during the entire term.

Road Master Pat Galvin Approves it and Report Sent to Headquarters.

None of the Tracks to Go Through Lowlands—New Railroad Expected to Be Begun Soon.

A SHORT CUT TO CAIRO MADE

Yesterday Roadmaster Pat Galvin of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central road inspected the entire preliminary survey of the new Cairo branch of the I. C. and stamped his approval on the route taken. He will immediately communicate the results of his inspection to headquarters and if the route surveyed meets with the approval of the higher officials, the branch will soon be under construction proper. In many cases, however, several surveys have to be made before the location is permanently decided on. Engineer Hill, who has charge of the work, began his line at East Cairo and worked straight through, meeting with no low ground, while the engineers surveying for the other roads, it is claimed, have cut through much low land and a large portion of their route is now under water on account of the rise in the Ohio. This is one foresight to be credited to the I. C. engineers, who have taken all precautions in locating their route.

Engineer Hill is now making out preliminary estimates of the cost, making plans of every section of the route, and if the present route is accepted the estimate will be sent to the headquarters to be used in letting the contract for the building of the road. It is estimated that the cost of the branch from start to finish will involve nearly $1,000,000, and whatever contractor gets it will have a big thing on his hands.

The engineers have had a hard time and have gone through much bad weather since the survey was started.

Four men have been placed in the hospital, two on account of sickness and two on account of accidents. Mr. Henry Trovencamp is now in the hospital and Mr. Wm. Moffett of Reeves, Tenn., is also ill and has been sent home. Mr. P. A. Hartong of Carlton, Mo., sprained his leg and was sent home, while Mr. L. D. Brower of Chicago shot himself accidentally while crossing a creek and is now at his home. He was crossing a creek when his pistol was accidentally discharged, the ball entering the right foot.

When the laying of the track will begin is a thing that is yet to be settled and if the present route is accepted immediately the work will be delayed some little time on account of the arranging of the estimates and the letting of the contract.

Mr. Hill and assistants were removed here waiting farther orders.

Now a Victim Prepared Some Choice Remarks for His Friends.

All Manayunk is chocking over a joke played the other day by Al Rudolph, his victim being the patrons of a certain barber shop over in West Manayunk, says the Philadelphia Record. This place has the reputation of being the rendezvous of a gang of jokers, who confiscate anything in the nature of entables or drinkables brought in by an unsuspecting customer. A man came in the other day with a dozen fried nyalera that he was taking home as a peace offering to his wife, and when he was released from the chair every oyster had disappeared. Watermelons have been known to go the same way, and when Al Rudolph had an imported cheese stolen while he was being shaved he planned a deep, dark revenge. While in town the next day he went to a restaurant and ordered some devil crabs made, giving specific directions as to their ingredients. The component parts were sawdust, red pepper and bits of old rubber shoes, covered over with bran, slightly baked. Then he went to the barber shop and while he was being shaved he left the counterfeit crabs, neatly done up in a box, on a chair. When he went out he purposely forgot them. In the place at the time were "Professor" David Wallace, Special Officer Harry Haggerty, Phil Lyle and Teddy Watchorn. No sooner had Rudolph gone than Lyle grabbed the package and opened it and a mad scramble ensued for the contents. In the meantime the joker was peering through the window and he says the scene that followed beggars description; that he never before heard such profanity and hopes he never will again.

AN AMERICAN FOG.

Britain's Metropolis Not in the Same Class with Long Island.

"I have met a great many Americans in my time," said Pilot Josh Lane the other day. "But John Lundy, a Rockaway oysterman, is far and away king of them all. It doesn't make any difference what you tell John in the way of a fairy tale, he will always go you one better. You may depend upon him, for he never fails. Two or three weeks ago I met John in a saloon in Long Island City. We got to talking about fogs, and I tried to impress him with the thickness of the fogs in London. I told him how people, standing on a street corner in London, could not see the lighted lamp on the post beside them; how people, after leaving their own doorstep, could not find their way back home until the fog had lifted, and a dozen other stories all greatly embellished. But it was no use—I could not even faze him. This was the return I got:

"Sonny, fogs may be pretty thick in that town, but they ain't half so bad as I've seen them right here on Long Island. I remember once, 'bout ten years ago, when I was shaggin' the upright part of my house, a fog rolled in from the east fit to put a man's eyes out. I didn't take much notice of it at first, but kept on nallin' down shingles, an' by an' by it lighted up some, and what do you think I'd been doin', sonny? I was half a mile away from the house, and the shingles was lyin' on the field all the way back. That blamed fog was so thick I'd been nallin' shingles on it and didn't know it. And that ain't the worst fog I've seen, neither."—New York Times.

DOCTORS IN MADAGASCAR.

French Establishing Free Dispensary Service Throughout Island.

The French have just begun to carry out a great work of humanity in Madagascar. Medical missionaries were until recently the only doctors in the island. The Governor General several years ago established a school of medicine and a hospital at the capital. The medical school has already turned out fifteen native physicians who have proved themselves competent to practice medicine. With his white medical staff and the intelligent natives who are being trained to practice medicine, the Governor General now expects widely to extend the service. He has therefore decreed that all branches of the medical service in the island shall be consolidated in one organization and that hospitals similar to that in Antananarivo, where 125 sick persons may be accommodated at one time and where free medical service is dispensed to applicants numbering 600 to 750 a day, shall be established in the larger towns. Many natives trained for medical service will travel from one village to another distributing medicines and treating the ill. Particular attention will be given to the care of children, as the mortality among infants is actually 40 per cent of the total deaths. Pamphlets are now being printed in the Malagasy language giving rules of hygiene. It is hoped that the measures which are being taken to improve the health of the people may result in the rapid increase of the population, which now numbers only 2,500,000. The Governor General says that in a half century the population of Madagascar should be double.—New York Sun.

MUCH INTEREST

IS AROUSED OVER THE TRIAL OF HARDEE BEASLEY.

Tiptonville, Tenn., March 14.—A trial that is attracting a great deal of attention in this section of the country is that of Hardee Beasley for the shooting of Dick Darnell, which occurred here last March. Beasley and Darnell had some trouble over the fact that Beasley had cursed over the telephone while Mrs. Darnell was at the receiver. Darnell had just returned from a business trip to Texas and had not yet been home to his family, when he and Beasley met in the postoffice. Beasley drew his pistol and fired, the first shot taking effect in the abdomen. Darnell grappled with him, but the shot seemed to have paralyzed him and he tried to make his escape. He started down through the postoffice on his hands and knees, but Beasley followed him and emptied the entire six loads into his body. Darnell, however, showed wonderful vitality and lived for more than thirty minutes. The fact that Darnell was not looking for trouble was attested by his having his pistol in his inside vest pocket and his coat and overcoat buttoned over it. Darnell and Beasley both had reputations of being bad men, and had been mixed up in more than one scrape. The Darnell-Watson feud, which waged in this county for several years, will not soon be forgotten by the older citizens, and Dick Darnell was the last principal of that noted affair.

AN EARTHQUAKE DESTROYS ASIA MINOR TOWN.

Vienna, March 14.—A dispatch to the Neue Freie Presse from Constantinople announces that the town of Kyankari, northeast of Asgora, in Asia Minor, was destroyed by an earthquake March 12.

No details of the disaster have been received. Kyankari had 20,000 inhabitants.

TALK OF A NEW GUN CLUB.

There is some talk among the engineers of the I. C. road of organizing a hunting club, engineers only to be members. There are many sportsmen among the I. C. engineers. The members, if the club is formed, will build a trap park and have regular shoots the same as the Paducah Gun Club. The thing has not been settled, but there is much favorable talk.

PAINFULLY INJURED.

Mr. Al Foreman was painfully injured yesterday afternoon at the Smith building at Second and Broadway. He was looking about near the walls when a large quantity of debris came down and carried him into the cellar. Spectators supposed he had been killed, but it developed that he fell under a rafter, which afforded protection to his body.

STATE SECRETARY HERE

Mr. Rosevear to Meet Members at a Conference Today.

The Home Project Will Be Thoroughly Discussed—Fourteen New Members.

Secretary H. E. Rosevear of the state Y. M. C. A. is in the city today and this afternoon a conference was held to look further into the Y. M. C. A. home question. The management of the local association said this morning that while everything indicated that they would have a home, that they did not feel like jumping out and not knowing exactly where they would land. "We want to get the thing started first and know just what to expect. While we have the assurance of several of Paducah's best citizens that we can depend on liberal donations, we do not feel that this should be worked on alone and want to see just what kind of a start can be made."

The matter will not be settled, however, for some time, as it requires much work even to start such a move.

Yesterday the local campaign workers secured fourteen new members and the work is still progressing. Since the big convention the membership has increased wonderfully and more interest is being taken in the work. Last night the association gym class had a better attendance than ever before. Twenty members were present and the best drill work of the winter was gone through. Since Mr. Overton Brooks has taken charge of the class the interest has been revived, and the members are enthusiastic over the work.

ASHES STRENGTHEN WIFE'S GRAVE.

Lafayette, Ind., March 14.—The ashes of the late Jeremiah Phelps, whose remains were cremated last week in Cincinnati, were, in accordance with his will, scattered over the lot in which the body of his wife is buried, in the Pierce cemetery, eight miles west of this city. The children of Phelps wished to have the ashes buried, but the court, on an appeal from Executor David Bryan, ruled that the will of Phelps must be carried out.

INTENSE SUFFERING

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, but Not a Pat. Medicine

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a 50 cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

"There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between ten and twelve pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

"Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

"Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."
